PROF. PERKINS, the superintendent of the public schools, desires a public expression of his thanks and those of the teachers and scholars to Mrs. W. R. Bringhurst for a donation of mats, very conducive to cleanliness and comfort. We desire to supplement the superintendent's acknowledgments with those of the school board. Moreover, we wish to say that Mrs. Bringhurst sends something better to the school than door-mats, nothing less, in fact, than Mr. Theo Plummer Bringhurst in person, who is an honor and an ornament to any establishment he may be pleased to patronize.
